Shahrzad Mirgholikhani, is today a successful businesswoman and mother of two but what she has been through can only be seen in surreal spy thrillers. Her tale stretches from Austria to Dubai and ends up in a US penitentiary. For five years she was imprisoned in the US on trumped-up charges of allegedly trying to smuggle US-made defense articles into Iran. She was framed and she fought hard to clear her name and regain her freedom. This is HER STORY.. She is now back in her homeland with haunting memories that are still with her to this day.
