CNN, CBS, and the Fox News channel have all reported on the war in Iraq, but what is the real story? Take a humorous journey with Fat Sarge as he relates his skewed views of his deployment into the "Green Zone." What do you get when you cross a sarcastic, overweight, middle-aged Sergeant with hardship and military idiosyncrasies? The answer is "Fat Sarge Down." From the news of deployment to war, to the discomfort of military travel, to the training with Special Forces nuts, you will take a crazy ride that will leave you doubled over in mirth! Based on a real deployment to Iraq, this crazy memoir will have you laughing until you cry. Be prepared for a mad cap war story that will inspire you to tell your own story, but remember what Fat Sarge always says, "All great war stories begin, 'And There I was.'"
