If silver is your colour, you've found the right book! Making with Metal Clay has all the projects you need to start making your own stunning silver jewellery. Projects range from the colorful Tutti Fruity Ring from silver clay master Lesley Messam to spring brooches and beautiful flowered pendants. There are pieces here that would make fabulous gifts, though you'll have to make two since you're sure to want to keep one for yourself. So whether you're a complete beginner or a seasoned silver clay artist, there are projects here to thrill you.
