He's a badass in the courtroom. She's a badass in general. But together, they're everything good. Small-town firefighter Amber always held out hope she'd find the foster boy who'd once come to her rescue, but when uber-rich Declan breezes into town, he's not at all who she remembered. Power-hungry Declan is on his way to becoming the biggest, bad-assed lawyer in LA...until a stop in Hope Falls changes everything he thought he knew about himself, his past, and his future.
