Kat Sokol has always seen herself as a lone wolf, determined, sassy, and aloof. But when she buys two tiles with wolves moving in them that only she can see, she finds herself sucked into a world of magic, danger and a sinister plan to ruin her beloved home town. Determined to fight the evil and protect her way of life, Kat enlists Eric's help. Since childhood, she has never seen him as anything but a friend. However in their quest to stop the evil, they find love and what is hidden in the mysterious factory at the edge of town.... DRAGONS
