Whar a lovely year this is for Rahel! There is the excitement of going to St. Catherine's College, of making new friends and enjoying new interest, of being a bridesmaid at her sister's wedding and of touring with friends. And, as if all this isn't enough to please Rachel, Cousin Katie - sent to St. Catherine's in mid-term - becomes her very special friend. But why is her delightful new friend so secretive, and why does her past life seem so mysterious? A wonderfully happy holiday in Europe, with her aunt and Katie, leads Rachel into unexpectedly dramatic evens. And at the end of the trip Katie at last confides in her - so that Rachel returns to St. Catherine's guarding a most precious secret.
