When twelve-year-old farm boy Shiloh Williams is sent to stay with his estranged grandfather, he discovers a mysterious new world inhabited by 'Movers.' The Movers live in symbiotic harmony with one another, except one extremely powerful Mover who has stolen the town's most precious artifact, the Eternal Flame. Shiloh investigates his supernatural surroundings, makes new friends, and begins to think of the town as home. However, just as soon as he starts to fit in, he realizes his newfound happiness is about to come to an abrupt end.

One decision and one extreme consequence are all that remain.
