God created you for a relationship with Him. With love in mind He framed you, and delicately knit your sinews in your mother's womb.

He cherishes you and treasures you. Trust is a cornerstone in every relationship. Without it, no relationship will prosper. God calls us to have blind faith in Him. If we do not blindly trust Him then we will never truly plumb the depths of a relationship with Him. Therefore it is necessary to grow in faith always, no matter where you're at in your walk with Him. There are many ways to increase in faith, and sometimes we need a little encouragement. In this book you'll find Thirty Six encouraging tips to increase your faith, especially during difficult circumstances. By applying these tips it will help you dramatically increase your faith and b your relationship with the Lord.
