Lyrical has been trying to remember the words her father spoke to her on the night her parents were murdered. She never expected to remember on a night that was supposed to be one of the best nights of her life. On the night of her Sweet 16 birthday party, she comes face to face with the devil himself... Pope. Upon hearing his name, everything her father told her came back to life.

Conflicted between telling her uncle who was responsible, because of her bond with Legend she decides now isn't the time. But, when she's faced with a life or death situation, she wishes she could turn back the hands of time. Will Lyrical be able to escape Pope's wrath? Will Remy find out who killed his brother and finally get the closure his family needs? Will Legend and Lyrical's relationship survive all the family drama? Find out in the finale of Legend & Lyrical 2: A Bayou Love Story...
