Some say that I'm cynical. Some say that I'm flippant. But I am neither of those things. I am just a realist, who through an unfortunate turn of events, learned the hard way that everything is in fact black or white. At least for me it is, and always will be. But then there is Calvin King. The thorn in my side, the pain in my ass. He is what some would call the perfect man - an imposing businessman, an even more impressive ladies' man. Every man wants to be him and every woman just wants him. At least that is what I hear. I'm not admitting to anything beyond that. What I do know and will concede to, is that my resolve is tested as soon as I meet Calvin.

He ticks every box off my checklist - sexy as sin, tall, dark, rich, intelligent, and funny. My body craves just the thought of him. How can I possibly keep him at arm's length when he is the only man I want and desire? And it doesn't help that he kisses like a god and sets my body on fire. Crap! Don't ask me how I know that, he doesn't play fair. Most importantly, I can't let him unmask me, it's my only defense. Unmasking Charlotte is book 2 of the Taboo Love series and picks up where Hey There, Delilah left off. As with Hey There, Delilah, it is a standalone - so don't worry if you haven't read Hey There, Delilah, yet - with a HEA. That means no cliffhanger! Oh, and expect to see some of your favorite characters.
