Amelia Noble realizes life is unfair, but she believes justice prevails in death. When Lu (Lucifer) taps the unemployed reporter to write the truth about him, God, heaven and hell, she discovers the afterlife can be unfair too. Her sister and many others reside in hell because of a rule God created but refuses to revoke. Amelia's first visit to heaven reveals a self-centered God who created humans for his entertainment. On her second visit to heaven, Amelia scolds God for carely playing a board game that affects people on Earth. She challenges him to live as a human. The next day, God accepts Amelia's challenge. He becomes human and returns with Amelia to find people his game has affected. Their journey will determine the fate of Amelia's sister and expose many secrets, lies and deceptions.
